

The Cat in the Hat Actually Does Come Back

From March 2 through March 6 we celebrated Dr. Suess reading week with our fellow programs all across America. On Wednesday of this special week, our program received a surprise visit from The Cat in the Hat, who actually came back. He read aloud from his very own book to an enthralled audience of thirty elementary school students.

Thanks to Alan Lane, "The Cat," Gladys DeLeon, "The Page Turner," and Judy Stouffer, "The Costume Designer" for making this visit possible.

The reading

The bad jokes

The aftermath

Cat and family

Genius costume designer and friend